Thanks Verena. This is exactly what I need. As an FYI, you may want to update the contact list on the EE sharepoint site.

Hi Anne,

Kia Long and I handle exceptional events in the Office of Air Monitoring & Analysis in Region 3. We aren't able to release our decisions on Pennsylvania's Ft. McMurray demonstration until our RA signs off on the concurrence package, but I think that the information you are looking for can be found in PADEP's demonstration. The demonstration is posted online at this link:

<http://www.depgreenport.state.pa.us/elibrary/GetDocument?docId=6857&DocName=Ozone%20EE%20Analysis%20May%2024-26-2017.pdf>

Let me know if you have any other questions.

Best,

Verena Joerger

Do you know this person in Region 1? Isn't this info on a Sharepoint somewhere? Let's talk first before we answer.

Hi Anne,

I am not the right person anymore, but am "cc'ing" the appropriate person to get you the info you need. Alice Chow is the supervisor for the air monitoring group and can put you in touch w/ the proper person in R3 that can help answer your questions. Good luck!

Hope all is well.

Drew

Hi Andrew,

I got your name from the EE contact list. I hope you are the right person. Can you please tell me what sites/days PA is demonstrating as impacted by an exceptional event? Also, can you tell me what the Philadelphia ozone design value will be if you concur with the demonstration.

Thanks!
